SECTION B

B1. I'm going to read a list with names of people in politics. Many people tell us they have not heard about some of the people on this list. As I read each name, please tell me whether or not you have ever heard of this person.

(INTERVIEWER: READ THE LIST ON THE BLUE CARD SLOWLY, TO GIVE R A CHANCE TO RESPOND. CROSS OUT NAMES R HAS NEVER HEARD OF.)

FOR B2 (NEXT PAGE) READ ONLY THE NAMES THAT ARE NOT CROSSED OUT.

B2. How much would you say you know about these people? For each name I read, please tell me whether you know quite a lot, a fair amount, a little, or almost nothing about him.

The first person is (FIRST NAME NOT CROSSED OUT). (Would you say you know quite a lot, a fair amount, a little, or almost nothing about him?)

INTERVIEWER: FOR THIS QUESTION, YOU WILL NEED TO MARK THIS QUESTIONNAIRE PAGE AND THE BLUE CARD.

IF THE R'S RESPONSE ABOUT A PARTICULAR PERSON WAS "ALMOST NOTHING", FIRST MARK R'S ANSWER TO B2 IN THE CORRECT COLUMN, THEN CROSS OUT THAT NAME ON THE BLUE CARD. FOR THE REST OF THE QUESTIONS ABOUT CANDIDATES IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE, YOU WILL USE ONLY THE NAMES NOT CROSSED OUT ON THE BLUE CARD.

- B3. Now let's talk about your feelings toward the people you know something about. I'll read the name of a person and I will ask you to rate that person on a thermometer that runs from 0 to 100 degrees. Ratings between 50 and 100 degrees mean that you feel favorable and warm toward that person. Ratings between 0 and 50 degrees mean that you don't feel too favorable and are cool toward that person. You may use any number from 0 to 100 to tell me how favorable or unfavorable your feelings are for each person.

If you don't feel particularly warm or cold toward the person, you would rate the person at the 50 degree mark.
